

2nd ESCAP RESIDENTIAL COURSE
ON ASSESSMENT AND TREATMENT
OF PSYCHIATRIC DISORDERS
IN CHILDREN AND ADOLESCENTS

SEP 28 - OCT 1, 2022 | CATANIA | ITALY

Scientific Organizing Committee

Marco Armando

(University of Lausanne, Switzerland)

Samuele Cortese

(University of Southampton, UK)

Luigi Mazzone

(University of Tor Vergata, Rome)

Faculty

Dennis Ougrin

(Queen Mary University of London)

Paul Klauser

(Monash University)

Kerstin von Plessen

(University Hospital of Lausanne)

Benedetto Vitiello

(University of Torino, Italy)

Marco Armando

(University of Geneva)

Carmen Morcillo

(Winchester, UK)

Samuele Cortese

(University of Southampton, UK)

Luigi Mazzone

(University of Tor Vergata, Rome)

Local Organizing Committee

Assia Riccioni

(University of Tor Vergata, Rome)

Martina Siracusano

(University of Tor Vergata, Rome)

Info

Web-site

www.residentialcourse.com

Mail

info@residentialcourse.com

Students will attend lectures and panel discussion on the most important psychiatric disorders of childhood and adolescence such as Autism, ADHD, early-onset psychosis, OCD, anorexia and mood disorders. They will review and discuss in depth case studies with the international expert.

The course is limited to a maximum of 25 applicants. Specialists or residents in child psychiatry, psychiatry, neurology, pediatric neurology, psychology are welcome to apply. Applicants should submit the application form, CV, a short abstract with a case report to be discuss during the course, and a recommendation letter by the head of department. Registration fee: 750 euros. It includes accomodation in twin room at Grand Hotel Baia Verde, daily breakfast, lunches and dinners, social events, transfer from/to Catania airport(on September 28th and October 1th in scheduled time slot) and access to all education activities.
Only the flight is not included.